

GOVERNOR DOUGLAS A. DUCEY

STATE OF ARIZONA ★ PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, as citizens we commit ourselves to the goal of equal access to justice for all;
and
WHEREAS, promotion of meaningful access to justice for all Arizonans helps build public confidence in the legal system; and
WHEREAS, most clients for indigent civil legal aid services are single heads of household with children, and many of them are victims of domestic violence; and
WHEREAS, it is important to secure to all persons, particularly those with limited financial resources, professional legal help and meaningful access to the courts, thereby creating meaningful opportunities to preserve families, protect victims of crime and uphold protection for all under the law; and
WHEREAS, many organizations and individuals – lawyers, legal professionals, judges, court staff and volunteers – work valiantly to promote access to justice for all, and their efforts deserve our support and recognition; and
WHEREAS, we celebrate over 100 years of Arizona's legal community and judiciary working to assure equal access to justice for all Arizonans.
NOW, THEREFORE, I, Douglas A. Ducey, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim April 2017 as

ACCESS TO JUSTICE MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona
